🎉🎉🎉🎉🎉 Huge congratulations to everyone at Sir Christopher Hatton Academy (Wellingborough) on the opening of their wonderful new building today - the 'Breezehill Centre' where I felt honoured to be invited to officially cut the ribbon. It was a very proud moment to be there on behalf of our wonderful charity, knowing the Academy has supported us every year right from the outset, raising over £35,000 in the past 18 years. To have a plaque on the wall is so humbling. Today the Head Girl and Head Boy, with staff, presented us with a cheque for £2,230.35 following the fun-filled Pink Week they held in October. Thank you SO much and WELL DONE to everyone at the Academy - we were entertained by many talented pupils (and staff) and were in awe of the amazing facilities available to the students. (I wish I was young again!) xxxxx

@HeartofHatton Here is the museum that Annabelle (07R1) built and the research she compiled about her Great, Great Grandad Ben Matthews 😊

My Great, Great Grandad, Ben Matthews
World War 1 Experience.

Ben Matthews was born on 28/12/1893, and died on 15/04/1979.

His first job was as a gardener, working in the Carnation Greenhouses on a large country Estate. My Nana can't remember if this was in France, or in England.

Then he joined the army and fought in World War 1.
He survived so many battles that he was called 'Lucky Ben' and other soldiers wanted to be with him. He was a Corporal Sergeant Major of the D.Corps. 1st Queen's Royal West Surrey's.

The battles he fought in were the Battle of Verdun,
The Battle of the Somme, the Battle of Mons and the Ypres Campaign.

He had to return home when he received a 'blighty' (when a piece of metal went through his helmet and in to his head. He was fine once his head had healed up.

Once the War was over he returned to live in Chiswick in London, and became a Policeman. He patrolled the streets of London.

Hi,

I'm Bryony and I have been invited to write to you by my school.

During lockdown I have been practicing sewing, I made a dress for my sisters doll. I have also been doing my school work of course and spending time with my family. I'm finding lockdown ok but I miss being able to go outside and see my friends.

I have a few questions. What's it like in the care home? I hope it's fun and you are doing things you enjoy. What things are you doing to keep yourself entertained during lockdown? And finally what things do you enjoy?

Lockdown has made me realise that spending time with my family is very important so I have been FaceTiming and calling my grandparents more often. Although it not great and I can't go to school, see my friends or go swimming I have tried to make the most of it I have talked to some of my friends from my old school and I have been learning new things. For example I am learning how to skateboard, learning more German and learning different exercises that will help with my swimming. Overall lockdown has helped try new things and talk to people/ spend time with people that I wouldn't have done before.

I hope you enjoyed reading this and are keeping well.

From Bryony
