

Name: Daniel Gunn

1. At what point during the summer did you start thinking about your results?

I didn't really stop thinking about my results before or after my exams and in the lead up to results day.

2. How did you pass your time in order to take your mind off your results?

I worked for most of the summer and managed to organise some work experience with Emma McClarkin, a member of the European Parliament. I also watched a lot of 'Game of Thrones'.

3. Were you calm, worried or frantic on the morning of results day?

Frantic!

4. What was your first reaction when you saw the grades you achieved?

Very pleased!

5. Why did you pick the course you have been accepted onto, what would you like to pursue as a career?

I believe Oxford is the best University in the world and I am now on the path to becoming either a banker or politician; my ultimate aim.

6. Outside of academic study what are you looking forward to the most about university?

What am I not looking forward to?! I am so keen to get involved and in student life. I am especially looking forward to the speaker's at the Oxford Union.

7. Can you cook and use a washing machine? What is your signature dish?

Yes, I can use both and my Chow Mein is superb!

8. What advice would you give any student thinking about studying A levels?

It is never too late to start revising.
