Questions

1. At what point during the summer did you start thinking about your results?

About 2 to 3 weeks before results day.

2. How did you pass your time in order to take your mind off your results?

I watched a lot of Netflix and went out with friends socially.

3. Were you calm, worried or frantic on the morning of results day?

Calm. I was given an unconditional offer for Birmingham and so I already knew I was going to my first choice university.

4. What was your first reaction when you saw the grades you achieved?

I was pleased but felt that I could have achieved slightly higher grades.

5. Why did you pick the course you have been accepted onto, what would you like to pursue as a career?

I want to work in the financial sector when I graduate and so picked a course that would be stimulating and interesting.

6. Outside of academic study, what are you looking forward to the most about university?

Meeting new people and becoming more independent.

7. Can you cook and use a washing machine? What is your signature dish?

I can cook a mean lasagne, but I am yet to master the washing machine.

8. What advice would you give any student thinking about studying A levels?

Work hard at the start and it will be more manageable later on.
